

THE SONG OF THE

IDEAL PEN

MUSIC

BY

PETER KNIGHT

(AGE 12)

Published by

L. E. Waterman Co.

401 Broadway New York City

PRINTED IN U.S.A.

Waterman's patrician

SMARTEST of fountain pens is the Patrician—a triumph of more than twoscore years of Waterman's achievement. Not only the world's most beautiful pen but it's years ahead in writing performance.

Five pens and matching pencils in colors inspired by jewel stones—Nacre (illustrated), Jet, Onyx, Turquoise and Emerald. Pens, $10. Pencils, $5. Matching set in an individually colored box, $15.

For those who prefer a lower priced pen there is Waterman's famous No. 7—a group of 7 pens—each with a different point designed specifically for a certain character of writing and so identified by an inlaid color band. Or Waterman's No. 5—a group of 5 pens—each with a different point and identifying color band. This same wide range of nibs also applies to the Patrician.

Waterman's are sold and guaranteed forever against all defects by over 50,000 merchants in the United States

L. E. Waterman Company
191 Broadway, New York

Boston Chicago San Francisco Montreal

The Song of the Ideal Pen

By PETER KNIGHT

Moderato

In dis-tant ag-es of long a-go, When When time grew ol-der and men knew more, They temp. mf con Ped.

earth was youn-ger and wits were slow, Man fought his foes with a big stone axe, And chang'd the cum-ber-some ways of yore, They made them pa-per from pound-ed reeds, And wrote with a stick on a sheet of wax, He carved his re-cords on lumps of stone, Or slaughter'd their cat-tle for parch-ment deeds, They wrote with feath-ers that squak'd and baw'd, And bricks of clay or a well bleas'd bone, And long be-fore child-ren were splutter'd and spal-ter'd and loose-ly spraw'd, And the scribe that liv'd in an cresc.

sub. roll a tempo

sent to school,— This was the song of the grav- ing tool.
ink - y den, Could hear the song of the goosequill pen. I write your vers-es, and books and bills, I'm feared far more than the sword that kills, The cresc. e roll. ff a tempo

faith-ful servant and lord of men, And the king of the world — is the Waterman's Pen.

And now, when every one needs must write, From ear-ly morning till late at night, Our thoughts and fingers run fast and glib, We write at our ease with a gold- en nib, No more we struggle with ink - y mud, No more we sit in an ink - y flood, Each cresc. e rall.

man can accomplish the work of ten, And this is the song — of the Water-man's Pen.

I write your verses, and books and bills, I'm feared far more than the cresc. e rall. ff a tempo sword that kills, The faith-ful servant and lord of men, And the king of the world — is the Waterman's

ff

Pen is the Waterman's Pen.

ben marcato

con molto Fed.

Real Inks!

WATERMAN'S INKS are compounded by veteran ink mixers with an expert skill born of years of experience, from the very finest raw materials. You will find these inks free from sediment, non-corrosive and uniform in color and consistency.

Waterman's Inks are not only the very best inks for your fountain pen but they are absolutely the very best for all around, general use.

Made in six popular colors—Blue Black (permanent), Jet Black (permanent), Green, Violet, Red and Waterman's very newest Blue ink—and are sold in 2 ounce to 1 gallon containers, packed in easy-to-carry, square protective cartons.

Waterman's Blue Ink is in response to a widespread demand for a brilliant blue ink for correspondence purpose. Writes a brilliant blue and dries a brilliant blue. Easily removed from clothing by soap and water. For that reason it is an excellent writing fluid for school work.

Try Waterman's Ink just once and you can be sold no other brand.

Made by the makers of the famous Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen.

L. E. Waterman Company
191 Broadway, New York

Boston Chicago San Francisco Montreal

Six Popular Colors

Blue Black (Permanent)

Jet Black (Permanent)

Green

Violet

Red

Blue

—

2 ounce to 1 gallon containers

Waterman's

Compliments of
L. E. WATERMAN CO.
NEW YORK